

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

Raymond Katchatag,
Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,
Appellee.

Supreme Court No. S-17448

Order

Date of Order: 10/29/2019

Trial Court Case No. 3AN-18-11620CI

On consideration of the motions for release of agency records filed by Raymond Katchatag on 7/30/2019, motion for extension of time to file the appellant's opening brief filed by Raymond Katchatag on 8/12/2019, the opposition to the motions for release of agency records filed by State of Alaska on 8/9/2019, and the reply to the State of Alaska's 8/9/2019 opposition filed by Raymond Katchatag on 10/16/2019,

IT IS ORDERED:

The motions for release of agency records are DENIED. The superior court dismissed the appeal because Katchatag failed to allege any specific facts establishing a violation of his constitutional rights as required by AS 33.30.295(a). It is inappropriate for Katchatag to seek discovery of agency records on appeal – the time to do so was in superior court. Katchatag may make his argument and explain why he did not seek these files when the case was before the superior court (or if he did, what the superior court ruled in response to his requests) in his appellate brief. His appellate brief is now due on or before 11/29/19.

Entered by direction of an individual justice.
